

We strongly oppose any change to Wisconsin's no-call law.

First --- If we close our account with a bank, we do not want our privacy violated by a banker who thinks that he can talk us into reopening an account with them. Our decision has been made!!!

Second --- Being firm believers in state's rights, the federal government has no right weakening a state of Wisconsin law.